KNOX MAY NOW SIT IN CABINET

House Passes Senate Bill by a Vote of 173 to 117.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The Senate bill providing for decreasing the salary of the Secretary of State from $12,000 to $8,000 in order to remove the constitutional disability which prohibits the appointment of Senator Philander C. Knox to the premiership of Mr. Taft's Cabinet was passed by the House of Representatives yesterday afternoon by a vote of 173 to 117. Eight representatives who were present refused to vote. This result was not brought about, however, until after the House, by a vote of 123 yeas to 173 nays, had refused to suspend the rules in order that the measure might be adopted. A two-thirds affirmative vote is required to suspend the rules, and while those in favor of removing Mr. Knox's disability outnumbered their opponents by 56, they still lacked 23 votes of the necessary two-thirds.

Deaths and Funerals.

etain etapin etapin shrdiu shrdiudua The funeral of Edward M. Wells, postmaster of Stratford under Cleveland's second administration, yesterday afternoon, was one of the largest ever held in Stratford. Over sixty members of Okenuck tribe of Red Men were in attendance, and the service was a most impressive one. The deceased was a charter member acted as an escort of honor. At the house, the church and the grave the coffin was borne between two lines of men each giving the salute of honor. Rev. E. N. Cornwall, rector of Christ church officiated at the church and at the grave in Union cemetery. At the funeral services each man of the guard of honor passed the grave and raising his hat dropped a sprig of evergreen in the open grave. The pall bearers were George A. Fairchild and E. Briggs Barnum, representing Okenuck tribe; Edward Burritt and William Fryer, clerks in the employ of the deceased in the latter's store at Hartford; and William Latin and William Crawford, old friends of the deceased. At the meeting of Okenuck tribe held last night a memorial service was also held being conducted by Past Great Sachem E. B. Plumley of Bridgeport.

Many sorrowing friends and relatives gathered yesterday morning at the funeral of Catherine, wife of Dennis Duggan, which was held at 9:30 o'clock from the late home of the deceased, 1817 Main street, and from St. Patrick's church at 10, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father Pickler, with Father Piper as deacon and Father Judge as sub-deacon. During the services, the prayers were rendered by Mr. Clappett, Miss Murray and Miss Sadler. The pall bearers were Michael Duggan, Timothy Walsh, Patrick Calvin, Daniel Singleton, Patrick Forestelle and James Duggan. Rev. Father Nihil read the memorial services over the remains at the grave in St. Michael's cemetery.

Mrs. Louise P. Seman, died yesterday morning at her home, 138 Beardsley street, after a brief illness. The deceased was the daughter of the late Frederick Vetter and is survived by two sons, William and Edward and two daughters, Pauline and Ruby. The deceased was a member of Hiram's Rebekah lodge, I. O. O. F. and had a legion of friends who will mourn her loss.

Are You Going to the big grand masquerade ball given by Schwaben Benefit Society at Esplanade hall, Friday, Feb. 19? If not, you will miss the only big ball this season. Many clubs and societies have been invited in this city and the arrangements have been made to have themselves proud of the arrangements and entertainment they have accomplished. Schwaben ball is known by its many friends for the generous number of dances on the program which will be a very handsome one this year, containing 24 numbers. See advertisement.

Tonight's Big Masquerade Ball. This is the night when the best masquerade ball of the entire season takes place, the 52d annual masquerade ball of the Germania Singing Society, on which occasion Germania hall promises to be packed with a fun-loving crowd enjoying themselves to their limit. Many elaborate masquerade costumes have been prepared for this ball and a number of surprises are sure to take place when the unmasking is held. This ball judging by its predecessors easily takes the first place in all affairs of its kind, and special preparations have been made for tonight's ball to insure it being well attended by anything in this line ever attempted before in Bridgeport. So if you want a real good time go and attend tonight, because if you do you will not be disappointed.

A Clearance of Stylish Long Coats. Women will appreciate this chance for real saving upon a good, warm coat. These garments would not be here now if we had had more of the old fashioned winter weather earlier in the season. The time has arrived for these coats to go, so we have placed them all in one group and marked them at a very low price, in order to send them out at once. You'll profit largely, if you will only accept promptly. Good, serviceable coats, in a variety of all wood materials, holding values up to $10—now priced at $1.50. Such forcible economy is worth while. The Labor Co., opposite Hibernia, where you always go for bargains in the true sense.
